

All proceeds from this event are equally apportioned to:
Methodist Home for Children and Congregations for Children (C4C).

Works to build strong families, protect children who've been through revolving short-term placements, who were born addicted to drugs, who've suffered abuse and neglect. The Methodist Home for Children helps stabilize their families, and open kids' futures to new opportunities through higher education grants and vocational training.

Congregations for children (C4C) partners churches with public schools in the community with focus on:

- 1) improving K-3 Literacy
- 2) providing for basic needs (food, clothing etc.)
- 3) helping schools increase parent/adult role model involvement
- 4) increasing awareness of child poverty
